

Student name _____

Let's meet some food producers!

In the book, we learn about various types of foods and how they are produced. Do you know farmers and producers in your area? Let's check out some resources that help you identify the types of production agriculture in a variety of places:

Sources to check:

- Phone book – business or yellow pages
- Chamber of Commerce Directory – check your local Chamber
- Something Special from Wisconsin Directory - <http://www.somethingspecialwi.com/suppliers.html>
- Wisconsin Agricultural Tourism Association, Inc. - <http://www.visitdairyland.com/results.iml?q=Tour>
- Wisconsin Farm Bureau County Information - <http://wfbf.com/county-farm-bureaus/>
- Farmers Feed Us - <http://www.farmersfeedus.org/>
- USDA Know Your Farmer, Know Your Food - <http://usda.gov/wps/portal/usda/knowyourfarmer?navid=KNOWYOURFARMER>
- Farm To School Program - <http://www.farmtoschool.org/WI/farms.htm>
- Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board - <http://www.dairydoingmore.org/FarmFamilies.aspx>
- Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection - <http://datcp.wi.gov/index.aspx>
- Wisconsin State Cranberry Growers Marsh Tours - http://www.wiscran.org/about\_cranberries\_0002/Cranberry\_Marsh\_Tours\_0095.html
- Facebook and social media have many reputable sources such as: The Hand That Feeds Us, U.S. Department of Agriculture
- American Farm Bureau Federation - Today's Agriculture - <http://www.fb.org/index.php?action=yourag.home>
- Foodie News - <http://www.fb.org/foodieblog/>

Identify producers/farmers in these areas. Circle ones that you'd like to visit.

Type of operation	School District	County	State
Grains
Dairy
Vegetables
Apples
Fruit			